VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL –Sunday, July 16—Thursday, July 20 from 6:30—8:30 p.m. Open to all kids, ages 3—12. Our theme this year is HERO CENTRAL—Discover Your Strength in God! Please contact Cindy Roberts or Janet Gregg if you are willing to help. One of the most important things you can do is invite friends and families in your neighborhood with children to participate. More information to follow.

ALTAR FLOWERS: Would you like to honor or memorialize an individual or group on a special Sunday? This can be done by donating flowers for worship. At the conclusion of the service you may take the flowers with you or indicate that they should be sent to the Stokes County Nursing Home or shut-in church members. If you would like to provide flowers, indicate the Sunday, person donating, person or group being honored or memorialized, and how you would like the flowers used at the end of the service on the Flower Order pad in the Narthex. You may provide the flowers or the church will order them for you. See Judy Fain for assistance.

THE SHACK COMES TO SNOW HILL

Plan to join us at 7:00 p.m. on Sunday, June 25 to watch The Shack. The movie depicts how the Trinity (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit) impact an individual's life after a life-shattering tragedy. Child care and a kid friendly movie will also be available. This event is free of charge.

AED Automated External Defibrillator

In the event of an emergency, there is an AED located in the hallway behind the chancel area.

† CALL TO WORSHIP Keith Lawson—Liturgist

(Leader) Let us worship the Triune God.

(All) Let us worship the One who spoke in the beginning and created something out of nothing.

Let us worship the Triune God.

Let us worship the One who took on the clothing of humanity to set those who were oppressed free.

Let us worship the Triune God.

Let us worship the One whose Spirit rests continually upon us, calling us from sorrow-filled endings to bright new beginnings.

RECEPTION OF NEW MEMBER Margaret Day-Moss

(CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE) We give thanks for all that God has already given you and we welcome Margaret in Christian love. As members together with you in the body of Christ and in the Snow Hill congregation of the United Methodist Church, we renew our covenant faithfully to participate in the ministries of the Church by our prayers, our presence, our gifts and our service that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ.

HYMN OF PREPARATION No. 599 (verse 1)

Break Thou the Bread of Life

RESPONSE

Christ our Lord invites to the table all who love him, who earnestly repent of their sin and seek to live in peace with one another.

Therefore, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

Merciful God, we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart. We have failed to be an obedient church. We have not done your will, we have broken your law, we have rebelled against your love, we have not loved our neighbors and we have not heard the cry of the needy. Forgive us, we pray. Free us for joyful obedience, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

(All pray in silence)

Here the good news: Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ you are forgiven.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven. Glory to God. Amen.

Let us offer one another signs of reconciliation and love.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and every where to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

And so, with Your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise Your name and join in their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of Your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are You, and blessed is Your Son Jesus Christ. By the baptism of His suffering, death, and resurrection You gave birth to Your church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us he took the bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, have it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said, "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

And so, in remembrance of these Your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Pour out Your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood.

By your spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world. Until Christ comes in final victory, and we feast at His holy banquet.

Through Your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in Your holy church.

Amen.

And now, with the confidence of children of God, let us pray

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

BREAKING THE BREAD

Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf. The bread which we break is a sharing in the body of Christ. The cup over which we give thanks is a sharing in the blood of Christ.

Everyone is invited to the front of the church, at the direction of the ushers, to receive the elements and to pray.

GIVING THE BREAD AND CUP

The body of Christ, given for you. Amen.

The blood of Christ, given for you. Amen.
